

Eloquent

We are eloquent when we use language to express our ideas or opinions clearly and with conviction. When we choose our words, we should do so carefully, so they are kind and compassionate, and don't hurt others. Eloquence isn't limited to speaking and writing. We can express ourselves in other ways like music, drama, painting or dance. We should use our creative gifts to say things in a way that is interesting, truthful, memorable and faithful.

“Lord, help me to use my words to encourage others and build them up far more than critiquing or criticizing them.”

1 Thessalonians 5:11

Truthful

God wants us to be truthful in all we do. Jesus said, ‘I am the way, the truth and the life’, so being honest and truthful means we are following in his footsteps and living life the way God wants us to. Being truthful is being faithful to ourselves and to Jesus. We should stand up for the truth.

Psalm 25:5 "Lead me in your truth and teach me, for you are the God of my salvation; for you I wait all the day long."

Lord God,
help us to know the truth,
and to speak the truth,
today and always.
Amen.
