

L.O. To understand the virtues eloquent and truthful

¹⁸ Dear children, let us not love with words or speech but with actions and in truth.
1 John 3:18

How can we walk in the footsteps of Christ by being eloquent and truthful?

Always be brave, truthful and eloquent

At the moment, lots of people all over the world are being eloquent in sharing their thoughts and feelings through art.
If you haven't already, why not add some rainbow art to a window of your home this week?

Share your pictures with your teachers to be added to our school gallery online.

What does it mean to be eloquent and truthful?
Being eloquent is to share our thoughts and ideas carefully and thoughtfully in many different ways, including speaking, writing, dance, music, drama and painting.
Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth and the life", so by being honest and truthful, we are walking in his footsteps and living in the way he taught us and the way God wants us to.
Being honest and careful in the ways we share our thoughts is not easy, but God will bless you if you try. Ask Him to put truth in your heart and He will!

I wonder why it is important to be truthful...

Add this prayer to your daily family prayer time.

Lord God,
help us to know the truth,
and to speak the truth, today and always.

Amen.
